

Proper 20 – Year C

What's Happening in Sunday School?

Today's readings teach us about our relationships with others and God. In the scriptures we are instructed to treat others with charity, kindness and honesty. In the Gospel lesson, Jesus tells the story of the clever steward who understood that people judge us by our deeds. The steward was a dishonest man, but he knew people would treat him with kindness if he did good things for them. Jesus reminds the disciples that they need to remember the same is true for them (and us). The riches of this world are the less, and grace and glory are the greater. We need to be faithful servants and faithful stewards of every earthly thing we have. We are to use what God has given us for the good of others and extend charity and kindness. Additionally, we need to share our faith in the Gospel of grace and salvation and our knowledge and love of God with others, and show kindness, so that everyone can come to share in His grace and heavenly kingdom.
